

CLAIM

"I claim¹ This device will address the need of government, federal, state, local and private sectors for a hand gun safety device that is effective and easy to operate.

This device is easy to make and inexpensive to install on existing weapons as well as new weapons. The safety lock would require only minor modification of new weapons and is easy to install on existing ones: